WATERBURY

St. Andrew's Church Filled for Funeral of Mark Dillon.

There was a long line of carriages filled with sympathizing neighbors and friends which went from the Dillon home yesterday morning to St. Andrew's church. Within the church was packed out of respect for Mark Edward Dillon and those who most keenly felt his loss. One side of the aisle was entirely filled with the students and teachers of the Waterbury high school. High mass was celebrated by Rev. Robert Devoy, rector of the church. The funeral oration was given by Rev. Joseph McKee of Bangor, Me., who is conducting the mission here this week. Father McKee gave a very touching and helpful address. The requiem mass was sung by the regular choir of the church, of which the deceased was a member, assisted by Rev. P. E. Bowin of St. Albans, and "Lead Kindly Light" was rendered as the funeral party left the church. Miss Ellen Devoy was organist. There were many beautiful flowers, including a pillow with "Mark," from the family, a beautiful cross from the Sheridan boys, sprays from the high school, "Brighten the Corner" society and Billingham grange, roses from St. Andrew's choir, carnations from Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Boynton, spiritual bouquets from Mr. and Mrs. Robert O'Brien and family, Mrs. Annie Barry and sons and Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Tewksbury and family; also different cut flowers in sweet peas, carnations and roses from Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Maloney and Miss Agnes, the Howland family, E. E. Foss and family, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Cooley, Mrs. Florence Crossett, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Campbell and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carver, Kenneth Somerville, Mr. and Mrs. William Goodwin, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Huntley, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Maloney and Milford Grandfield, and an evergreen wreath from Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Hunt. The bearers were Arthur Howland, Willis Breen, Glen Donovan, Raymond Gallagher and Thomas Devine of this town and Edward Phillips of Bolton. Burial was in the Holy Cross cemetery.

Among those present from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. John McAuliffe, John Neary and Mr. and Mrs. C. Dillon of Burlington, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Boynton of Taunton, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Clossy of Detroit, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Maloney and Miss Agnes Maloney, William Clossy and William Clossy, Jr., of Montpelier, Mrs. T. C. McCarthy and John McCarthy of Barre, Mrs. Ella O'Connor, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Leonard, Mrs. Harry Flint, Mrs. Mary McLean, Miss Lizzie Dillon, Mrs. M. Harmon, Edward Dillon and David Welch of Bristol, and John O'Brien and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Phillips of Bolton.

Among those who attended the funeral of James Goodwin in Barre Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Goodwin, Mrs. Lizzie Casey, John Keefe and T. J. O'Neill, Mr. and Mrs. James Flynn, Bernard Flynn, Paul Flynn and Ruth Flynn of Montpelier also went from here. The burial was in the Holy Cross cemetery, Rev. Robert Devoy officiating at the grave.

Rev. William L. Boicourt attended the meeting of the Congregational union in Montpelier yesterday.

Grant Russell has returned from a fishing trip to East Alburg with about 40 pounds of lake fish.

Mr. and Mrs. John McAuliffe of Burlington, who were called here by the death of Mark Dillon, returned home yesterday. The party who came from Bristol Sunday also returned to their homes. Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Boynton, who were called by his serious illness, returned to Taunton, Mass., yesterday.

Saturday evening in the opera house a large number attended the agricultural rally, when the Waterbury Home Production club was formed with the following officers: President, C. B. Adams; secretary, E. W. Magnus; finance committee, W. B. Clark, W. J. O'Neill and J. F. Somerville; census committee, J. T. Smith, M. H. Moody and W. D. Darrow; supervising committee, Perry Aldrich, to choose his own assistants. Dean J. L. Hills of the agricultural college and County Agent Abbott urged planting of the staple crops, while John W. Gordon of Barre urged the development of the patriotism of the men, both in the military and farm service. Town's orchestra furnished music, which added much to the spirit of the evening. Several of the men present guaranteed up to the amount of $200, whereby anyone approved by the committee, unable to buy, can borrow up to the amount of $10 at the Waterbury Savings Bank & Trust Co. for seeds and fertilizer. Along with the plea to plant more was also the plea to save more, both by more attention to the cooking and saving of waste.

Miss Marian Gonyo of Scotia, N. Y., arrived in the city yesterday to spend a few days as the guest of Miss Stella Gonyo of Brook street, after which she will spend the summer with friends and relatives in Williamstown.

Regular meeting of the woman's association of the Congregational church will be held Wednesday afternoon in the church parlors at 2:30, the program being in charge of the mission department. All women of the parish are invited.

James Thompson, who recently returned to this city after obtaining his release from a Montreal, P. Q., home guard unit, began work this morning as a bellhop at Hotel Barre, succeeding James Booth, who leaves to-morrow for Boston, where he is to pass the summer.

George S. Nye of Barre Town is the possessor of a curiosity in a pair of spectacles made in 1786 by Zaccariah Hill in Sandwich, Mass. The bows and temples are made of hammered brass and the lenses are of putty. Mr. Nye also possesses a copy of President Washington's valedictory, printed at Montpelier by Walton & Goss in 1811.

Mr. and Mrs. Berton I. Staples, who went from St. Johnsbury a few years ago to live at Fort Morgan, Col., have moved from there to Thoreau, N. M., where C. B. Weeks, formerly of St. Johnsbury, has been located for some time as vice-president of the McGassy Constructing company. Mr. Staples will be manager of one of the McGassy stores.

Among the guests arriving at Hotel Barre yesterday were the following people: Mrs. H. James of Chicago, Ill., Charles A. Murphy and Julius Mendelssohn of Plattburgh, N. J., John H. Riley of East Berkshire, H. C. Hadd of Enosburg Falls, J. A. Hunter of St. Johnsbury, James B. Campbell and Harry W. Witters of St. Johnsbury, Dr. H. N. Jackson of Burlington, Prof. J. H. Sasserano and Mrs. Sasserano of Northfield, E. W. Gould of Manchester, W. T. Colgrove of Burlington, Nelson K. Lyon of Greenfield, Mass., and Paul C. Parsley of Middle-town, Conn.

Small towns contributed most of the May 1 quota of drinks at pool hall head-quarters. The local branch was formed of license, thus far without liquor, opened with four respondents facing Magistrate H. W. Scott in city court to-day. Reuben Clough of Washington, detained as an habitual, acknowledged a subsequent offense, disclosed on two Pearl street establishments, and made arrangements to pay a $15 fine and costs. James E. Welch of Walden acknowledged a first offense, as did John E. Taylor of Washington, each paying the minimum fine and costs. Edward L. Bressau of Barre pleaded guilty when charged with a subsequent offense and thought he could pay the $15 fine and costs assessed him by the court.

Returning visitors from the camp of the Headquarters company at Fort Ethan Allen bear witness to the fact that the Barre boys are comfortably ensconced in tents and, thanks to the munificence of Barre citizens, the unit recruited in this city has a slight edge on some of the other companies, inasmuch as the $1,500 fund subscribed here furnished the stimulus for a bright idea, an idea which resulted in the purchase of coal for the Sibley army stoves. Each tent is equipped with a stove and coal is said to provide a much more satisfactory heat than wood under the conditions. A small portion of the money, therefore, was diverted to the purchase of coal and what with wooden floors the company is as content as soldiers quartered indoors.

A committee consisting of the mayor, the city attorney and the city clerk will report at the council meeting this evening on its investigation of the charge that an ex-overseer of Barre received pay for supplies furnished the charity department in 1917. The report will concern alleged transactions as related by the auditors at the aldermanic session last week. If the street committee has proceeded far enough in its investigation with Contractor E. N. Normandin for 1,200 tons of crushed granite this year another interesting report will be forthcoming, and it is probable that the property committee, acting on the referendum taken at the city meeting Friday, will have some recommendations to make with regard to insuring the city hall out of a privately created fund.

NO MORE RUSH MARRIAGES.

Bellows Falls Goes Out of the Gretna Green Business.

Bellows Falls, May 1.—At midnight last night Bellows Falls ceased to be the Gretna Green of New England, the law requiring five days' notice of intention for couples from outside the state going into effect.

Since Jan. 1, 1916, 1347 couples have been married here, and possibly 100 have been residents of this or one of the other villages in Rockingham.

Dave Shean has been playing fine ball for the Cincinnati Reds, adding weight to an argument advanced often in recent years that Shean was out of place in the minor league. A player fit for the majors at Shean's age must have been good enough for the fast company two years ago.

Cactus Cravat was slated for the minors last winter, but his ability to slug the ball has been shown on several occasions this spring, and his old fence walling will be of great use to the Moran crew on more than one occasion this spring.

Rogers Hornsby is again the Cardinals' heaviest hitter and is also playing great ball on the offensive for the St. Louis team. Hornsby will probably be one of the league's leading men this season and even as young as he is he is considered as steady as any man on the team.

Gleason, who is playing second base for the Pirates, was with Lynn of the Eastern league last season, hitting for .271 in 124 games and stealing 42 bases through the entire season.

Cumbe, the former Boston Red Sox player and now with the Cleveland club, was not much of a southpaw last season, but this year he seems to be coming to the front in fine style.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Grand May ball, auspices Barre branch American Red Cross, Howland hall, to-night, May 1.—adv.

Ernest Anderson, who was formerly employed by the Perry Auto Co. and during the past winter has been employed in Dunedin, Fla., arrived in the city yesterday.

Known and alleged violations of the law regarding the sale of cigarettes to minors have caused the authorities to renew their vigilance wherever tobacco is sold and dealers who have ignored the rule that a warning sign shall be displayed over tobacco counters are being reminded of the penalty attached to such an offense. From the secretary of state a fresh supply of the warning, printed in large type on heavy cardboard, has been received for local distribution.

Swanton Man May Be Turned Over to Federal Authorities.

St. Albans, May 1.—Chester Hurlburt of Swanton, who was brought to the Franklin county jail in this city a short time ago on a charge of breach of the peace, made remarks that resulted in his arrest. It appears that the man was employed at the plant of the Remington Metallic Cartridge company and while at work is said to have expressed the wish that every boat that left a harbor would be blown up and that every ammunition plant would be destroyed.

Hurlburt was discharged from the plant and the authorities hearing of the incident arrested him and he was brought here and is being held under a $500 bond. He may be turned over to the federal authorities.

SPRING SHOES

The necessity of exercising the greatest care in the selection of spring footwear is felt and appreciated these days by women who desire good shoes!

Never were shoes more beautiful and never were so many inferior shoes placed on the market! The only safe and sure way to obtain satisfactory shoes is to buy them of a reliable store—such a shoe store as this, where—

Every Shoe Is Guaranteed to Be Exactly Right

If you figure shoes by the cost per year instead of the cost per pair, you will find that it costs less to wear our splendid shoes than it does to wear just shoes!

The new spring models are beautiful and are shown here in great variety of colors. Low Shoes, Pumps, Slippers in Black and Colors. Every shoe a beauty. May we show you?
